The Charge

"To you, Sons of Confederate Veterans, we will commit the vindication of the cause for which we fought. To your strength will be given the defense of the Confederate soldier's good name, the guardianship of his history, the emulation of his virtues, the perpetuation of those principles which he loved and which you love also, and those ideals which made him glorious and which you also cherish.

Given at New Orleans, LA in a speech on April 25, 1906 to the SCV National Convention by Lt. Gen. Stephen D Lee.

From the Commander's Desk

By: Camp Commander Don Green

Greetings Compatriots,

We are fresh off of one of the best Fall Muster's in recent memory. It was an honor to participate in the event again and hope if you missed it this year, you plan to attend next year. We had great weather, wonderful crowds, incredible battles and a good time was had by all. We will be moving into our fall and winter schedule of events and hope you can attend something as your time allows. Reenactment wise, Camp Moore is not too far away in Tangipahoa, LA. the weekend before Thanksgiving and McLeod's Mill is not that far away in Leakesville, MS. the second weekend in December. Camp wise we will help the Rotten Bayou Cemetery Committee out with the wreaths program in December when the committee gets the date set. Also, Beauvoir will have it's Christmas in Camp December 18th. If you have something the Camp can help you with, let us know so we can try to help. This could range from help with a family headstone, cemetery, ancestor research and the like. Also, we are very open to setting up to sell the flags in our stock and to help promote our cause to the public. Our next Camp Meeting will be Tuesday October 26, 2021 at 6:30pm at Compatriot Blake Landrineau's house in Diamondhead. The address is 9735 Limu Way, Diamondhead, MS. 39525. Mr. Pat Alford will speak. We hope to see you there.

Media Pages Update

We are looking at creating a new website for a minimum fee, possibly free, for the Camp. Our original website was a bit costly and has not been renewed as of yet. Camp Members are looking at this for us and will report to us in the very near future with possible options. We are also looking at creating other pages on different social media sites given the biasedness against our heritage that exists on present medias. More to come.

THE BATTLE OF DECATUR

Decatur – October 26-29, 1864

Taking place in Morgan County and Limestone Counties, on October 26-29, 1864, this battle was part of Confederate General John B. Hood's Franklin-Nashville Campaign during the fall of 1864. When Hood was marching through northern Alabama on his way to Union-held Tennessee, he originally planned to cross the Tennessee River at Guntersville, Alabama. However, when he learned that it was highly guarded, he changed directions and decided to cross at Decatur, 40 miles to the west. When he and his troops arrived on October 26, they found that this crossing was also heavily fortified with a Federal infantry force of 3,000 to 5,000 men, two forts, two gunboats, and 1,600 yards of rifle pits. On October 27, Hood and his men encircled Decatur, and the next morning, he sent Confederate skirmishers through a dense fog to a ravine within 800 yards of the main fortifications. At about noon, a Federal regiment drove the Confederate troops out of the ravine, capturing 125 men. "With the soldiers hungry and supplies scarce," Hood knew he could not afford the casualties from a full-scale assault and decided to cross the Tennessee River elsewhere. He then marched further westward and crossed near Tuscumbia, Alabama, where Muscle Shoals prevented the Federal gunboats' interference. The Union victory resulted in estimated casualties of 155 Union and 450 Confederate.
