The Charge

"To you, Sons of Confederate Veterans, we will commit the vindication of the cause for which we fought. To your strength will be given the defense of the Confederate soldier's good name, the guardianship of his history, the emulation of his virtues, the perpetuation of those principles which he loved and which you love also, and those ideals which made him glorious and which you also cherish.

Given at New Orleans, LA in a speech on April 25, 1906 to the SCV National Convention by Lt. Gen. Stephen D Lee.

From the Commander's Desk

By: Camp Commander Don Green

Greetings Compatriots,

DUES DUES DUES!!!!!! Dues are coming due and you should be receiving a renewal statement. We hope it will be correct this year. Dues are $55 for annual renewal due August 1 and delinquent after August 31. We do not wait until the end of August to send our renewals in. Please get the dues in to us by the due date; the earlier the better. With a successful Division Reunion behind us, I'd like to report we have been chosen to receive two Awards for our Camp. First, we were awarded a Co-Camp of the Year with another Camp in the Division. Apparently the committee thought the things that camp did were equal to our efforts. Second, we won the Scrapbook award for this calendar year and this was earned as there are quality scrapbooks produced by OCR Chapters each year. We did receive a financial report for Beauvoir and that's another story for another time. Up next, we have a joint Memorial with the Gainesville Camp on Saturday July 9, 2022 at Turtleskin Cemetery at 10am located just north of the Stennis Noth Gate. Other things coming up is the National SCV Convention in Cartersville, GA. July 20-23. Compatriots from all over the country will be in attendance for it. As you will see below, we are zooming in on our Camp Tshirt. Once the final price has been set, we will order the shirts in different sizes and began to sell them asap. We hope you will be exited about the shirts. Our next camp meeting will be Tuesday June 28, 2022 at the Mercy House in Bay St. Louis. Our speaker will be Chuck Morgan from Baton Rouge who will present on Father Abraham Ryan. We hope to see you there. Deo Vindice! God Bless the South!

Media Pages Update

We are looking at creating a new website for a minimum fee, possibly free, for the Camp. Our original website was a bit costly and has not been renewed as of yet. Camp Member Don Elbourne is working on a website and will report to us in the very near future with possible options. We are also looking at creating other pages on different social media sites given the biasedness against our heritage that exists on present medias. More to come.

HANCOCK COUNTY CHAPTER, HANCOCK COUNTY, MS

The Pearl Rivers Chapter #30 chartered into the Mississippi Society Order of the Confederate Rose during an interesting time in our world. We chartered in January 2020 and were unable to have our first independent meetings due to the COVID pandemic. We are proud to say that we will be hosting our first meeting on September 1st, where our members will discuss activities we hope to accomplish and how we plan on supporting our host Camp.

We hope to invite prospective membership to our future meetings, which will be the first Tuesday of each month. Jeb Stuart's Ride Around McClellan

HEADQUARTERS, Dabb's Farm, Va., June 11, 1862.

*Brig. Gen. J. E. B. STUART,
Commanding Cavalry:*

GENERAL: You are desired to make a secret movement to the rear of the enemy, now posted on Chickahominy, with a view of gaining intelligence of his operations, communications, &c., of driving in his foraging parties, and securing such grain, cattle, &c., for ourselves as you can make arrangements to have driven in. Another object is to destroy his wagon trains, said to be daily passing from the Piping Tree road to his camp on the Chickahominy. The utmost vigilance on your part will be necessary to prevent any surprise to yourself, and the greatest caution must be practiced in keeping well in your front and flanks reliable scouts to give you information.

You will return as soon as the object of your expedition is accomplished, and you must bear constantly in mind, while endeavoring to execute the general purpose of your mission, not to hazard unnecessarily your command or to attempt what your judgment may not approve but be content to accomplish all the good you can without feeling it necessary to obtain all that might be desired. I recommend that you only take such men and horses as can stand the expedition, and that you take every means in your power to save and cherish those you do take. You must leave sufficient cavalry here for the service of this army, and remember that one of the chief objects of your expedition is to gain intelligence for the guidance of future operations.

Information received last evening, the points of which I sent you, lead me to infer that there is a stronger force on the enemy's right than was previously reported. A large body of infantry, as well as cavalry, was reported near the Central Railroad. Should you find upon investigation that the enemy is moving to his right, or is so strongly posted as to render your expedition inopportune--as its success, in my opinion, depends upon its secrecy--you will, after gaining all the information you can, resume your former position.

*I am, with great respect, your obedient servant,
R. E. LEE,
General.*

On June 12, 1862, C.S.A. Brigadier General J. E. B. Stuart left Richmond at the head of a 1,200 man force apparently going to the assistance of General Thomas J. "Stonewall" Jackson in the Shenandoah Valley of western Virginia.

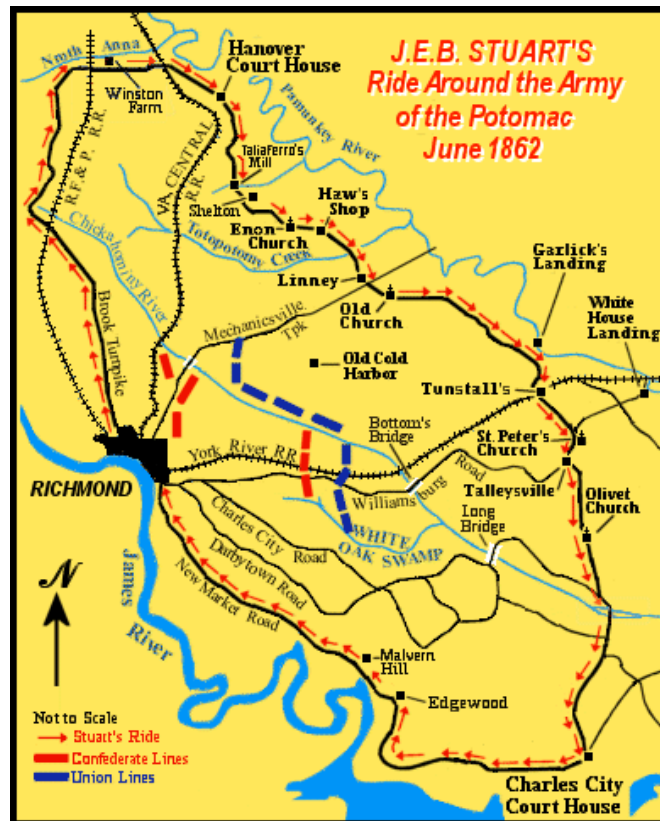

He did not go there.

Instead, at the request of General Robert E. Lee, recently made commander of the C.S.A. Army of Northern Virginia, Stuart was on a reconnaissance mission.

Robert E. Lee was confronting, just outside of the C.S.A. capital city, Richmond, Virginia, a huge Federal Army, the Army of the Potomac, under Union General George B. McClellan. Lee planned to attack the Union army's right flank, isolated on the northern side of the Chickahominy River, but he needed to know its disposition.

Accordingly, per Lee's request, on June 12, 1862, J. E. B. Stuart left Richmond with 1,200 men to survey the Union positions. Three days later, at dawn, June 15, 1862, Stuart returned with everything Lee had wanted and more, having ridden completely around the Union army.

Had he done nothing else for the entire war, this one event would have assured J.E.B. Stuart a place in military history.
