Namesake

Regimental Flag of the 3rd Mississippi Infantry

The Camp takes its name from Co. F, The Shieldsboro Rifles of the 3rd Mississippi Infantry. Formed on August 1, 1861 at Shieldsboro, MS. under the command of Captain Deason (Later Col. Deason), the Regiment served as Coastal Defense for Mississippi until its capture on April 3, 1862. The 3rd Mississippi Infantry Regiment was reformed in May 1862 at Camp Moore in Tangipahoa, LA. It was sent to defend Vicksburg and fought at Champion Hill on May 16, 1863. The regiment served around Jackson, MS. until it was sent to Georgia in the Spring of 1864. It saw action at Resaca, New Hope Church, Kennesaw Mountain, and Peachtree Creek. It fought in the defense of Atlanta & served in the trenches until September 1864. In October 1864, the Regiment was sent back into Alabama participating in the Decatur Skirmish, seeing action in Tennessee at Spring Hill and heavy fighting at Franklin on November 30. In February 1865, they were sent to Kingston & Bentonville in North Carolina. As the tide turned against the South in April, the Regiment surrendered on April 26, 1865 at Durham Station, NC. The Shieldsboro Rifles Camp #2263 meets the last Tuesday of each month at the American Legion in Bay St. Louis, MS. (AKA Old Shieldsboro)

Confederate Proclamation

STATE OF MISSISSIPPI

Office of the Governor

PROCLAMATION

WHEREAS, April is the month when, in 1861, the American Civil War began between the Confederate and Union armies, reportedly the costliest and deadliest war ever fought on American soil; and

WHEREAS, State law declares the last Monday of April as Confederate Memorial Day, a legal holiday to honor those who served in the Confederacy; and

WHEREAS, as we honor all who lost their lives in this war, it is important for all Americans to reflect upon our nation's past, to gain insight from our mistakes and successes, and to come to a full understanding that the lessons learned yesterday and today will carry us through tomorrow if we carefully and earnestly strive to understand and appreciate our heritage and our opportunities which lie before us:

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Tate Reeves, Governor of the State of Mississippi, hereby proclaim the month of April 2020 as in the State of Mississippi.

CONFEDERATE HERITAGE MONTH

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Great Seal of the State of Mississippi to be affixed.

Beauvoir Closes Operations

Beauvoir, The Jefferson Davis Home and Presidential Library

March 23 at 4:50 PM ·

It is with heavy hearts that we must announce that the Board of Directors have decided to close Beauvoir to the public effective today, March 23, 2020. As of now, we do not have a firm date on when we are planning on reopening, but we will keep everyone up to date. Please bear with us and pray for us as we go through this transition.

Division Reunion Rescheduled

Mississippi Division Sons of Confederate Veterans

April 9 at 4:52 PM ·

Good Afternoon Compatriots,

After much prayer and discussion with the officers of the John C. Pemberton Camp, members of the Division's Executive Council, and several healthcare officials, it has been decided to postpone our Annual Reunion until August. This decision was not made lightly. While we may be clear of the virus by the original weekend date, some members may not have recovered financially.

Attached is an updated copy of the Reunion Registration form. If you have already pre registered for the Reunion, then your registration is STILL VALID. YOU WILL NOT HAVE TO RE REGISTER. If you have not registered, please do so. Also, with it being Confederate Heritage Month, consider purchasing an Ancestor Memorial.

Camp Commanders and DEC officers, please take note of the below changes in scheduling. Please have your reports in by those crucial dates.

1 May 2020, Fri Camp Reports due to Brigade Cmdrs

1 June 2020, Mon Brigade Reports w/camp reports due to Pemberton Camp in Vicksburg

MS Division staff Reports due to Pemberton Camp in Vicksburg

15 June 2020, Mon Early Reunion Registration Ends

Vendor Registration Ends

Ancestor Memorials Ends

PROGRAM Ads Ends

15 July 2020, Mon Hotel Guaranty Rates Ends (see registration forms)

1 July 2020, Mon Finalized PROGRAM submit to AlphaGraphix Publisher

I look forward to seeing you all in August, and please remain ever vigilant and safe.
